YOU'RE INVITED...

... to a complimentary breakfast and workshop on Thursday, January 19, 2012 at 8:30 a.m.

The event will be held from in the conference room at the Traverse Area Association of Realtors (TAAR) office located at 852 S Garfield Avenue in Traverse City.

Landlords, developers, realtors, and others interested in housing are invited to learn how affordable housing programs can:

- enhance development projects
- guarantee tenants and rental income
- provide access to a variety of funding sources and services

Speakers from federal, state, and local agencies will discuss grants, loans, and other programs that property owners can access when including affordable housing in their projects, rental properties, or renovations.

This event is brought to you by:
